Civil No. 03-30.308-MAP

PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN LIMINE
REGARDING PHOTOGRAPH NUMBER 97

The Plaintiffs hereby oppose the Defendants' Motion in Limine seeking to preclude entry into evidence photograph number 97 which depicts the J.P. Graphics business records. In response the Plaintiffs state the following:

The defendants' motion references a photograph; however, the plaintiffs do not intend to introduce a photograph of J.P. Graphics business records but rather documentary evidence of these records. The references to a numbered photograph in the defense motion actually is a reference to a proposed exhibit number sent to the defendants by the plaintiffs in connection with drafting the pre-trial memorandum in this case. The exhibits were copied or scanned and sent to the defendants on a compact disc for review. The documentary evidence of the records will be offered at trial. See Exhibit A.

With respect to the claim that the documents are hearsay, the plaintiffs state that the documents fall within the business records exception to the hearsay rule (FRE 803(6)). The decedent's father, Jose L. Feliciano, is currently operating a business named J.P. Graphics and is using the logos and business cards contained in the proposed exhibit. In addition, the exhibit contains documents which were prepared by the decedent and his father which were to be filed with the City of Springfield to register the business. The logo and business card design contained in the exhibit were created by the decedent, and are regularly used by the decedent's father.

With respect to the claim that the documents are not relevant, the plaintiffs state that the logo and business cards designed by the decedent, and the documents prepared for filing with the city, demonstrate the close family relationship between son and father, and provide evidence of the elements of loss of consortium presented by the decedent's father. See Russell v. Ramirez, 949 S.W.2d 480 (Tex. App. Houston 14th Dist. 1997), reh'g overruled, (Aug. 28, 1997), reh'g overruled (Aug 28, 1997). The decedent's father has testified at his deposition and is expected to testify at trial that he and the decedent were planning the open a printing business together. He has and will testify that the logo, business cards, and city filing documents were prepared prior to his son's death and that his son had designed the logo and business cards. He further will testify that he has indeed started the business using the name and logo his son designed for them. The documents in this exhibit demonstrate that actual steps had been taken by father and son to start the printing business prior to the decedent's death, thereby corroborating and supporting the decedent father's testimony.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiffs hereby request this Honorable Court to deny the defendants' Motion in Limine Regarding Photograph Number 97.

Respectfully submitted,
By the Plaintiff,
The Estate of Jose R. Feliciano
